Numb. 1828

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday May 24. to Monday May 28. 1683.

Vienna, May 16.

THe 14th Inſtant arrived here Count Palfi from Hungary, being ſent by the Duke of Lorrain, as we are told, to inform the Emperor of the Condition his advices tell him the Enemy is in, and of the reſolution he has taken to advance with the Imperial Army, and to attack ſome place before the Grand-Vizier comes into the Field; and Yeſterday eight Pieces of Cannon, ſhooting 36 Pound Bullets, and four great Mortar Pieces, were drawn out of the Arſenal, and ſent to the Army. The Palatine of Hungary is, according to the Emperor's Orders, Poſted with the 5000 Hungarians, that were at the General Rendezvous near Presbourg, in the Iſland Schutz, for its ſecurity againſt the Incurſions of the Gariſon of Newheuſel. The Emperor has reſolved to Publiſh a general Pardon in Hungary, with promiſe of Reſtitution of Goods and Eſtate, to all ſuch as do immediately return to their Obedience to his Imperial Majeſty, and not only the Hungarians, but likewiſe the Germans that have deſerted the Emperor's Service, and taken part with the Rebels, are by this renewed Offer of the Emperor's Grace and Pardon invited to return to their Duty. In the mean time we hear that Count Teckeley continues the Siege of the Caſtle of Donowits and according to all probability he will make himſelf Maſter of it.

Vienna, May 20. The Imperial Army, who had made a Halt for ſome days near Raab, Decamp'd again the 15th Inſtant, and is Marched, as we are told, towards Gran, with a deſign to attack that place. Count Palfi is diſpatched back to the Army, and this Morning parted from hence five great Boats Laden with Bombs, Grenadoes, Powder, &c. for the uſe of the Army. The Palatine of Hungary has Orders to March with the Hungarian Troops under his Command, in order to his joyning with thoſe commanded by Major-General Schutz, and the 6000 Poliſh Horſe, under the Command of the Chevalier de Lubomirski, at Trenchin on the Waag; Theſe Troops are to act againſt Count Teckeley, who it's ſaid is much concerned at the Alliance concluded between the Emperor and the Crown of Poland. The Elector of Bavaria, who is Treated at this Court with all the reſpect and kindneſs imaginable, intends to begin his Journey home in two or three days, and to take it by the way of Prague, having a deſire to ſee that place; and with his Electoral Highneſs will go the Count de Kaunits, as the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary. The 18th Inſtant Count Leſlie arrived here from Germany, (having reſigned the Command of the Imperial Troops now in the Empire to Count Maximilian de Staremberg, Governour of Philipsburg) and to morrow he parts hence for Hungary, the Emperor having given him one of the chief Commands in his Army. Count Lamberg, the Emperor's Envoy to the Electors of Saxony and Brandenburg, began his Journey this Morning. The Emperor has named the Count de Thurn to be his Ambaſſador at the Court of Poland, from whence one is coming in the ſame quality hither. His Imperial Majeſty has likewiſe reſolved to ſend an Ambaſſador to the Czars of Moſcovy, but the Perſon is not yet named.

Ratisbonne, May 24. The Electoral Colledge being much diſſatisfied with the Paper we told you in one of our laſt the Imperial Commiſſioner had delivered to them in the name of the College of Princes, concerning the difference now depending between the two Colledges, he has ſince withdrawn the ſame. According to our freſheſt advices from Hungary, the Imperial Army was Encamped near Raab, from whence the Duke of Lorrain intended to Decamp the 15th, and to enter upon ſome action, he having, as is ſaid, received advice, That the Grand-Vizier will not yet in a Month or ſix Weeks be in the Field with the main Body of the Turkiſh Army. The News we had of the great Magazine at Zigeth being blown up, is confirmed.

Ratisbonne, May 27. Nothing has paſſed in the Dyet worth communicating ſince our laſt, the Deputies of the Electors expecting new Orders from their Maſters before they enter upon any thing concerning the Treaty with France, or the point of the publick Security. From Vienna they write, That the Palatine of Hungary is ordered to paſs the River Waag, and to joyn General Schutz and the Prince of Lubomirski, who is expected with 6000 Poles, near Trenchin, and that they are to act againſt the Hungarians, in caſe they do not accept of the Pardon which the Emperor has now again offered them. The Advices from Hungary ſay, That Count Teckeley has made himſelf Maſter of the Caſtle of Donowits, after having beſieged it five Weeks, and that the Baron Foannel is a Priſoner; and that Count Teckeley had received ſeveral Summons from the Baſſa of Offen, to take the Field, and to joyn the Turkiſh Troops under his Command, but that hitherto he had made ſeveral pretences to excuſe it.

Cologne, May 28. Things continue here in great diſorder, the Commonalty demanding the Execution of what they pretend the Magiſtrates lately promiſed them; and theſe, to preſerve the Publick Peace, have appointed Guards in ſeveral places of the City. The Biſhop of Strasburg is gone for Alſace. It is reported here, That the Circle of Suabia is at laſt entred into the League which the Circles of Bavaria, Franconia, and the Upper Rhine, have lately made with the Emperor. The Chapter of Wirtsbourg is to meet the 11th next Month, to chooſe a Biſhop in the room of the Deceaſed.

Bruſſels,